

Searching for the Great Hopewell Road DVD Order Form

Description: Searching for the Great Hopewell Road explores archaeological research into the monumental earthworks of a Native American culture that flourished in the Ohio Valley about two-thousand years ago. Based on the investigations of Dr. Bradley Lepper, Ohio Historical Society, this one-hour documentary blends interviews with aerial video, archival images and rare documents to examine evidence the Ohio Hopewell people may have built a straight, 60-mile road between their two largest ceremonial centers.

Length: 60 minutes

Format: DVD

Distinctions: Chris Award (top prize), 46th Annual Columbus International Film & Video Festival.
